

I am a Child in this World

I am a child in this world.

I wonder why others do wrong to benefit their own personal lives,

I hear the Earth calling for care.

I see the world a place of joy and sorrow,

I want world peace.

I am a child in this world.

I pretend that the many terrible events do not concern me,

I feel great sorrow when people treat the world with distaste.

I touch the luxurious greenery of the Earth, bathed in the tranquil sunlight,

I worry we do not protect our planet enough.

I cry when people mistreat others and the Earth,

I am a child in this world.

I understand many have hard lives,

I say together we can make a difference.

I dream of a place where everyone is treated equally and fairly,

I try to ignore the battles and wars, disputes and arguments taking place in the world.

I hope to touch the hearts of evil, and change the way they feel,

I am a child in this world.

I am a Gamer

I am a gamer

I wonder what will happen in the game

I hear the enemies laughing at me

I see death lying before me

I want the latest game I can play

I am a gamer

I pretend I am in the game

I feel sad about the things in the game

I touch the powered remote control

I worry about my skills

I cry when the power goes out

I am a gamer

I understand I am not perfect

I say "DIE, DIE" at the enemies

I dream I will become a really good video game player

I try my hardest to escape defeat

I hope I will make my very own videogame

I am a gamer

BY Sebi I AM A SPORTSMAN

I am a sportsman

I am my father's son

I always wonder how I will go in my next match

I hear our team song playing as we run on to the field

I look at my Coach and he says, I believe in you son

I want to be the idol of young kids watching the TV at home

I am a sportsman

I am a man of steel

I pretend that I am a star

I feel my sharp studs dig into my feet as I run onto the ground

I touch hearts of children

I worry that if I don't play my absolute best game I will let down my supporters

I cry on the inside when we lose

I am a man of steel

I am a legend

I am ready to begin because I am ready to win

I never lose when I want to lose and I never win when I want to win

I dream of being the new Gary Ablett of my time

I try to be a champion

I understand my teammates

I am a legend

I am a sportsman

I am a soccer star

I am a soccer star

I wonder if I am going to make it

I hear the crowd yelling out my name

I see the goalie sweating as I am about to kick the ball

I want to get to the big league

I am a soccer star

I pretend that I am going to miss the goal

I feel like I am going to be sick

as I am going to place it on the ground I have a bad feeling but get over it

I worry I am going to let my team down

I will be miserable if I don't make that goal

I am a soccer star

I will understand if they will kick me out of the team

I say to myself I will make the goal

I dream to play for Messi

I try to win the grand final

I hope I can get the goal

I am a soccer star

I AM PERSISTENT

I am persistent

I hear myself saying never stop trying.

I want to make an effort to try everything.

I wonder who I would be without my mum.

I am persistent.

I see myself working hard in the future.

I want to make an effort to my everything.

I feel my mum has helped me to be the person I am today.

I am persistent.

I worry that I haven't done the job properly.

I touch people with my positive attitude.

I have no fear.

I hope that I have done what my mum or teacher said to do.

I am persistent.
